AUDIT COMMITTEE UNDER THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Chapter I General Provisions

Article 1 In order to improve the discussion and decision-making procedures of the Audit Committee (the "Audit Committee") of the Board of Directors of Xiamen Yan Palace Bird's Nest Industry Co., Ltd. (the "Company") and ensure the smooth progress of the work of the Audit Committee, these terms of reference are formulated in accordance with the Company Law of the People's Republic of China (the "Company Law"), the Articles of Association of Xiamen Yan Palace Bird's Nest Industry Co., Ltd. (the "Articles of Association"), the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Hong Kong Listing Rules") and other relevant provisions.

Article 2 The Audit Committee is a special committee established by the Board of Directors, which is mainly responsible for the supervision and verification of the Company's internal and external audit and internal control systems.

The members of the Audit Committee shall ensure sufficient time and energy to perform the duties of the Committee, be diligent and responsible, effectively supervise the external audit of the Company, guide the internal audit of the Company, promote the Company to establish effective internal control and provide true, accurate and complete financial reports.

Article 3 The Company shall provide necessary working conditions for the Audit Committee and appoint specialized personnel or institutions to undertake the daily work of the Audit Committee, such as work liaison, meeting organization, material preparation and file management. The management and relevant departments of the Company shall cooperate with the Audit Committee in performing its duties.

Chapter II Personnel Composition

Article 4 The Audit Committee shall consist of at least three members, all of whom shall be non-executive directors. The number of independent non-executive directors shall be more than half and at least one independent non-executive director shall have appropriate professional qualifications or appropriate accounting or related financial management expertise as required under the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Article 5 Members of the Audit Committee shall be nominated by the chairman of the Board of Directors, more than half of the independent non-executive directors or one-third of all the directors, and shall be elected by the Board of Directors.

Article 6 The Board of Directors shall periodically evaluate the independence and performance of the members of the Audit Committee, and may, if necessary, replace those members who are unfit to continue serving. A person who is a former partner of an existing auditing firm shall not be a member of the Audit Committee unless two years have elapsed from (a) the date on which he/she ceases to be a partner of the auditing firm; or (b) the date on which he/she ceases to have any financial interest in the auditing firm (whichever date is later).

Article 7 The Audit Committee shall have a Chairman (the “Chairman”), who shall be an independent non-executive director. The Chairman shall be appointed by the Board of Directors, and is responsible for presiding over the work of the Committee.

Article 8 The term of office of the Audit Committee is the same as that of the Board of Directors, and members may be re-elected after their term expires. If any member ceases to hold the office of Director of the Company during the period, he/she shall automatically lose his/her membership and the number of members shall be supplemented by the Board of Directors in accordance with these terms of reference.

Chapter III The Secretary

Article 9 The secretary of the Audit Committee shall be any Company Secretary or joint Company Secretary.

Article 10 The Audit Committee may from time to time appoint any other person with suitable qualifications and experience as the Secretary of the Audit Committee.

Chapter IV Duties and Powers

Article 11 The duties of the Audit Committee shall include the following:

- (1) to supervise and evaluate the work of external auditors;
- (2) to guide internal audit;
- (3) to monitor the effectiveness of the financial reporting system, risk management and internal control systems;
- (4) to review and comment on the Company’s financial reports;
- (5) to perform the Company’s corporate governance procedures;
- (6) to coordinate the communication between the management, internal audit department and related departments and the external auditors; and
- (7) other powers conferred by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents, the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company’s shares are listed (including the Hong Kong Listing Rules), the Articles of Association, and the Board of Directors of the Company.

Article 12 The responsibility of the Audit Committee to supervise and evaluate the work of the external auditors shall include at least the following:

- (1) to be primarily responsible for advising the Board of Directors on the appointment, reappointment and removal of the external auditors, approving the remuneration and terms of appointment of the external auditors, and dealing with any question relating to the resignation or dismissal of the external auditors;
- (2) to review and monitor the independence and objectivity of the external auditors and the effectiveness of the audit procedures in accordance with applicable standards, and to discuss with the external auditors the nature and scope of the audit and the relevant reporting obligations before the commencement of the audit;
- (3) to formulate and implement policies on the provision of non-audit services by external auditors. For this purpose, “external auditors” includes any entity under the same control, ownership or management as the audit firm, or any entity which a third party with reasonable knowledge of all relevant information could reasonably conclude is part of the audit firm’s domestic or international business; and
- (4) to report to the Board of Directors on any matter requiring action or improvement, point out problems and make recommendations.

Article 13 The responsibility of the Audit Committee to supervise the Company’s financial reporting system, risk management and internal control system shall include at least the following aspects:

- (1) to review the financial control of the Company and (unless there is a separate risk committee under the Board of Directors or the Board of Directors itself explicitly deals with it) to review the risk management and internal control systems of the Company;
- (2) to discuss with the management the risk management and internal control system to ensure that the management has fulfilled its responsibilities to establish an effective system, including the adequacy of the Company’s resources, staff qualifications and experience in accounting and financial reporting functions, as well as the adequacy of staff training courses and the relevant budget;
- (3) to undertake, on its own initiative or at the direction of the Board of Directors, a study of significant findings on risk management and internal control matters and management’s response to those findings;
- (4) to ensure that the work of internal and external auditors is coordinated; and to ensure that the internal audit function has sufficient resources to operate within the Company and has an appropriate status; and review and monitor its effectiveness;

- (1) evaluation of the work of external auditors, appointment and replacement of external auditors;
- (2) whether the Company's internal audit system has been effectively implemented and whether the Company's financial reports are comprehensive and truthful;
- (3) whether the Company's financial reports and other information disclosed to the outside world are objective and true, and whether the Company's major connected transactions comply with relevant laws and regulations or the relevant provisions of the Hong Kong Listing Rules;
- (4) evaluation of the work of the Company's internal financial department and audit department, including its responsible person;
- (5) other relevant matters.

Chapter VI Rules of Procedure

Article 24 The meeting of the Audit Committee shall be divided into regular meeting and temporary meeting. The regular meeting shall be held at least twice a year and once every six months. When two or more members of the Audit Committee make a proposal, or when the Chairman considers it necessary, a temporary meeting may be convened. Notice shall be given to all members three days prior to the meeting, and the meeting shall be chaired by the Chairman, who may entrust another member (independent non-executive Director) to chair the meeting if he/she is unable to attend. The aforesaid notice period may be waived with the unanimous consent of all members. Notwithstanding the notice period, the presence of a member of the Audit Committee at a meeting will be deemed a waiver of the required notice period for that member. The external auditors of the Company may request a meeting if they consider it necessary.

Article 25 The meeting of the Audit Committee shall be held only with the attendance of more than two-thirds of the members; each member shall have one vote; resolutions made at the meeting must be adopted by more than half of all the members. If an effective review opinion cannot be formed due to the withdrawal of members of the Audit Committee, the relevant matters shall be directly reviewed by the Board of Directors.

Article 26 The meeting of the Audit Committee may be convened in person, by telephone or video conference. The meeting can be attended by telephone or similar communication devices through which all participants should be able to hear each other. A resolution of the Audit Committee, if made at a meeting, shall be passed by more than half of the members of the Audit Committee present at the meeting.

Article 27 A resolution passed and signed by all members of the Audit Committee shall be as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting duly convened by the Audit Committee.

Article 28 If any member of the Audit Committee has an interest in the matters discussed at the meeting, he/she shall withdraw. Members of the Audit Committee shall attend the meeting in person and express clear views on the matters under consideration. If a member is unable to attend a meeting in person for any reason, he or she may submit a power of attorney signed by the member and entrust other members to attend and express views on his or her behalf. The power of attorney shall specify the scope and term of authorization. Each member shall be entrusted by a maximum of one member. If a member who is an independent non-executive director is unable to attend the meeting in person for any reason, he or she shall entrust another member who is an independent non-executive director to attend the meeting on his or her behalf.

Article 29 When necessary, the Audit Committee may invite representatives of external auditors, Company supervisors, internal auditors, financial personnel, legal advisers and other relevant personnel to attend the meetings of the Audit Committee and provide necessary information. However, only members of the Audit Committee are entitled to vote at the meeting of the Audit Committee.

Article 30 If necessary, the Audit Committee may hire an intermediary institution to provide professional advice for its decision-making at the expense of the Company.

Article 31 The procedures for convening the meeting of the Audit Committee, the voting method and the motions passed at the meeting must comply with the provisions of relevant laws, regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules, the Articles of Association and these terms of reference.

Article 32 Minutes shall be kept for the meetings of the Audit Committee, and the members and other personnel present at the meetings shall sign the minutes. Minutes are kept by the Secretary of the Board of Directors or the Secretary of the Audit Committee of the Company for the review of each director. The first draft and the final version of the minutes shall be sent to all members of the Audit Committee within a reasonable time after the meeting, with the first draft for members to express their views and the final version for their records.

Article 33 The proposals and voting results adopted by the Audit Committee shall be reported to the Board of Directors of the Company in writing.

Article 34 The members present at the meeting shall have the obligation to keep confidential the items discussed at the meeting and shall not disclose the relevant information without authorization.

Chapter VII Supplementary Provisions

Article 35 After being approved by the resolution of the Board of Directors, these terms of reference shall come into force and be implemented.

Article 36 Matters not covered in these terms of reference shall be implemented in accordance with relevant laws and regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules, other provisions of the Hong Kong securities regulatory authority and the relevant provisions of the Articles of Association. If the relevant provisions of these terms of reference conflict with the relevant laws and regulations promulgated or amended in the future, the Hong Kong Listing Rules, other provisions of the Hong Kong securities regulatory authority and the Articles of Association, they shall be executed in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules, other provisions of the Hong Kong securities regulatory authority, the current Articles of Association or the amended Articles of Association.

Article 37 The power of interpretation of these terms of reference shall be vested in the Board of Directors of the Company.

Article 38 In case of any discrepancy between the Chinese and English versions of these terms of reference, the Chinese version shall prevail.
